

Ballooning

Ballooning is an activity to be preferably practiced early in the morning or late in the afternoon. The wind and other climate conditions could influence on the balloon ascent. In fact, this activity will be confirmed at least the day before of the flight.

In general, ballooning trips are practiced in Colonia, Atlantida or Maldonado. The flight lasts 1 hour and the crew is communicated by radio with the car driver, so they can inform about the position to be picked up when reaching ground again.

Prices:

- USD 500 total (2 pax). If only one person want to contract the services, he/she will have to pay this total quote of 2 persons.
- USD 700 total (for special events). It consists in different flights with 2 people aboard on each.

Note: Ballooning costs could change, depending of the Exchange rate, oil prices, etc. Flights contracted more than 100 km from Atlantida should have an extra cost.

Included:

- 1 hour flight
- champagne to toast during the flight
- transfer from/back to the starting place (to be defined)

Not included:

- Transfer from your hotel to the starting place.

Note: Those people who want to contract this service have to send us an email and they will receive the referring price.

We recommend you to subscribe to our monthly newsletter, in order to keep informed about the ballooning facilities and preferred departing days (regarding climatic conditions). You can subscribe to the newsletter at our website or simply sending us an email.

It will be our pleasure to assist you in planning your Ballooning trips in Uruguay, and contracting the best services available at the most competitive prices in our market.

To ask for booking or further information, write back to contact@joinuruguay.com . We will e-mail the information at no cost within 72 hours and it will be specific to your requirements.

Welcome!

JOIN URUGUAY